

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 296 – HB 1849

February 21, 2011

SUMMARY OF BILL: Creates a new Class C misdemeanor if a legal guardian expressly permits the guardian's child to participate in any solicitation or collection of money at a highway or street intersection. Creates a new Class C misdemeanor if a person, at least 18 years of age, expressly permits a child to participate in any solicitation or collection of money at a highway or street intersection and such person is the organizer or manager of the solicitation. The offenses are punishable only by a fine of $50.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- There will not be a sufficient number of prosecutions for state or local government to experience any significant increase in revenue or expenditures.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "James W. White".

James W. White, Executive Director

/lsc

SB 296 – HB 1849